

OIV AWARDS

2019 Edition

Secretary of OIV Award Jury jurydesprix@oiv.int | | www.oiv.int

A recognition at the international level, a reference in the vitivincultural sector

Awards and Special Mentions are given each year by an International Jury composed of eminent personalities from the wine world representing the countries members of the OIV. The awards are presented during a prestigious Ceremony in Paris.

Categories determined by the OIV Award Jury

For technical and scientific works intended for professionals, teachers and also vulgarisation works for general public.

A judgment according to specific criticisms

On the volume of work, the presentation and organisation (information units for an interactive digital tool), the quality of content, the originality, the international scope, the degree of interactivity of the digital tool, the overall impression given to the reader of the book or the user of digital tool.

Specialized readers in many countries

University professors, journalists, writers, scientists, historians, sommeliers, œnologists, lawyers and other sector professionals: several readers evaluate each submitted work.

Simple and fast registration terms and conditions
