

3.1.7 The ageing of wine

The term "aged wine", or an equivalent, can only be used if:

- a national rule defining ageing conditions exists;
- if the ageing period is at least three years for red wines and two years for white wines.