About the OIV

The International Organisation of Vine and Wine (OIV) is an intergovernmental organisation that establishes scientific and technical standards for the global vine and wine sector. Among its core missions is the collection, processing, analysis and dissemination of sectoral data.

Role description

Under the authority of the Director General and the supervision of the Head of the Statistics Department, the selected intern will be involved in the following tasks:

- a. Conducting online data research and extraction
- b. Verifying data for completeness, consistency, and accuracy
- c. Analysing international datasets and market information to identify trends and sector developments
- d. Developing statistical indicators and data visualisations
- e. Supporting the production of OIV's statistical outputs (e.g., The State of the World Wine Sector, 2027 Thematic Focus, etc.)
- f. Assisting in the preparation of presentations for conferences and official OIV meetings
- g. Providing support for other activities of the Statistics Department, as required

Internship conditions

- 1 Working hours: 35 hours per week
- 2 Allowance: approx. €650 / month + specific compensation scheme (contribution to public transport tickets and meals)
- 3 Working arrangement: this internship is office-based and requires the intern's physical presence at OIV Headquarters in Dijon for the entire duration of the internship.

Qualifications and selection criteria

- 1 Citizenship of an OIV Member State
- 2 Undergraduate degree (or higher)
- 3 Excellent command of Microsoft Office (Excel, PowerPoint, Word)
- 4 Excellent command of English (written and spoken). Knowledge of French or other OIV official languages is considered an asset.

PLEASE NOTE:

APPLICATIONS THAT DO NOT MEET QUALIFICATIONS 1, 2, 3 AND 4 WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED

- 5 Experience in data processing and data visualisation (e.g. Power BI) are highly desirable
- 6 Strong analytical and writing skills
- 7 Knowledge of the wine sector is an asset
- 8 Ability to prioritise tasks, work independently and effectively within an international team
